

Transcript for A snowy day in Durham

Hello and welcome to another video for the British Council's LearnEnglish Teens website and their YouTube channel.

Today it is snowing in Durham so I thought it would be a beautiful chance to film for you and now the sun's come out and it's really lovely, so I'm just going to go on a walk with my friends in the snow and hopefully film some really pretty things for you.

So we've come to Wharton Park, which is a park in Durham, near where we live. Um, it's very hilly, so it's perfect for sledging, so, yeah, we've been having some fun on the hills and I'll show you some clips of that now.

Hi, guys! We're still in Wharton Park and I wanted to film to show you the beautiful scenery of Durham. As you can see here there's – no don't! (laughing). Have a look at the scenery. It's really nice. We're very lucky to ... be ... living here. Aww, that hit me in the face!

So, we finished our walk and we've just been into a pub called The Station House, which is behind me just there. And we had a drink and a sausage roll to warm up, which was very nice. Now we're going to head home, so thank you for watching and I look forward to seeing you in my next video. Bye!
